The Tent of Discontent

They grumbled in their tents and did not obey the Lord. - Psalm 106:25

I can grumble at the gas station (high prices), at the store, (the item I want isn't available), at the grocery store (not enough checkout lanes open), in the car (no one is working in the construction zone), in the kitchen (looking at the stack of dishes in the sink), in the driveway (taking forever to defrost my car's windshield). Good grief - my tent of discontent is huge!

No wonder Jesus had to die on the cross - our sins included even our grumbling, murmuring, complaining, and discontent. And he died without grumbling about our grumbling!

Jesus didn't grumble; "He humbled himself by becoming obedient to death - even death on a cross!"

Lent is a good time to work on our attitude and give up our grumbling.

Father, in this season, work in us the attitude of Christ Jesus. Help us to honor you as He did, in humble obedience. In His name we hope. Amen.

1 Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

As we look forward to this month of March we will be engaging the Epistle of 1 Peter. This letter is full of encouragement for the believer that endures sufferings. But it also holds the reminder that salvation sets us apart from the world we once inhabited. We are a chosen people -- and we've been chosen to proclaim God's goodness. Where therefore do we proclaim it? To one another? Behind the safety of our church walls? In the depths of creation? To a lost and broken world? Yes, to all of the above. When we are redeemed from destruction, when God calls us out of darkness and we experience the light of God's love -- we must proclaim that He Is Good. And in doing so, we begin to share that light to a world still trapped in darkness.

Therefore, as we study 1 Peter this month, ask the Holy Spirit how you can proclaim His praises so that the world see's the light of Christ shining through you.
